Company Overview

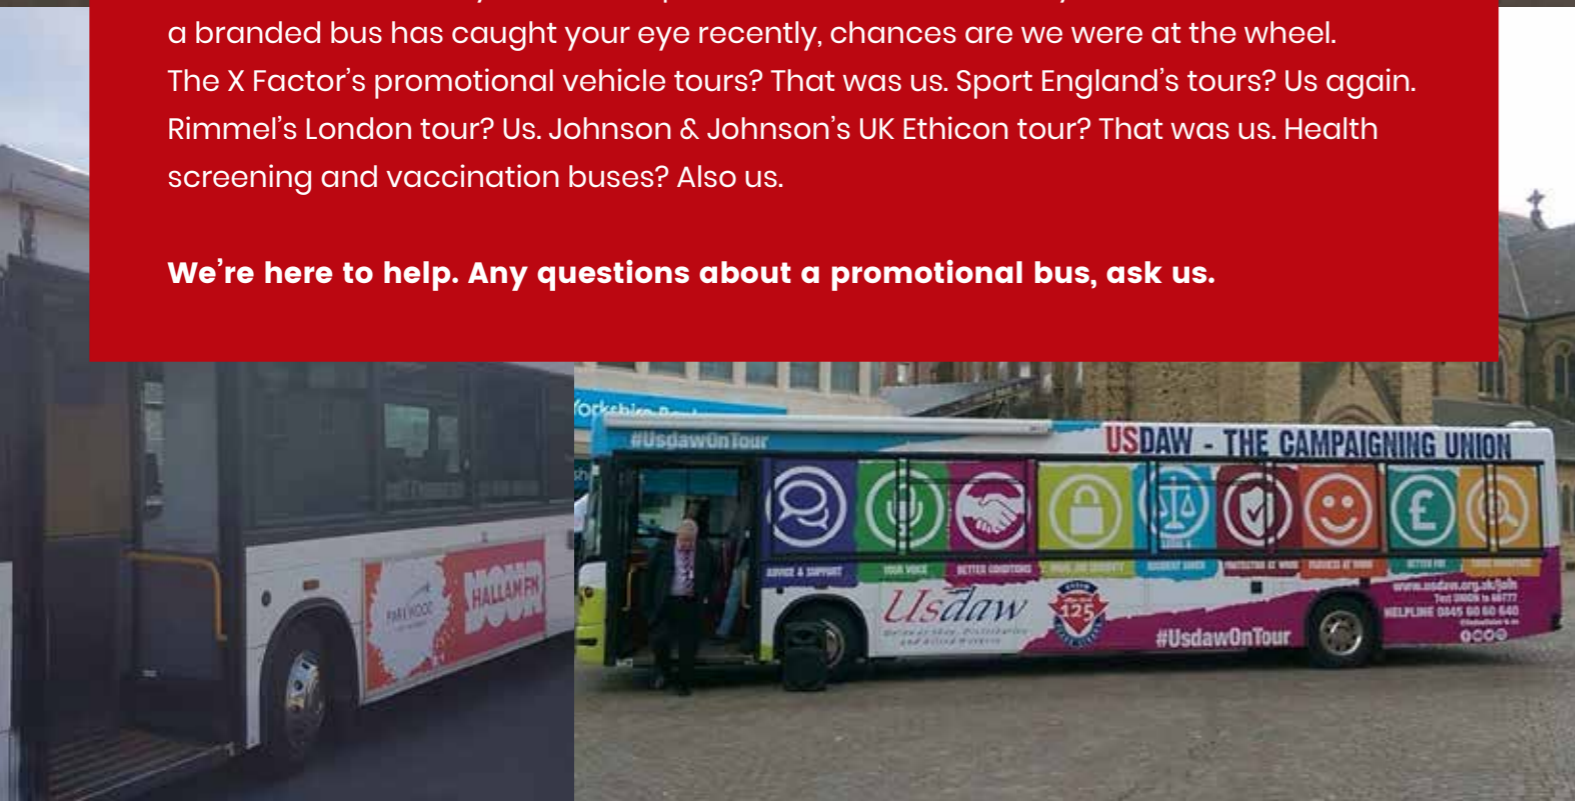

Hello.

We're Roadshow Promotions, the UK's premier promotional vehicle hire and production company.

With over 20 pre-converted and modular interior buses, we've probably got more vehicles than anyone else in the UK and Europe.

Across both the UK and Europe, you'll find our promotional buses spend more days on the road than virtually all our competitors combined. You may not know it, but if a branded bus has caught your eye recently, chances are we were at the wheel. The X Factor's promotional vehicle tours? That was us. Sport England's tours? Us again. Rimmel's London tour? Us. Johnson & Johnson's UK Ethicon tour? That was us. Health screening and vaccination buses? Also us.

We're here to help. Any questions about a promotional bus, ask us.

What we do

We bring the 'wow!'

Distinctive. Powerful. Iconic. Our mission is to help our clients do more than catch the eye. We help them connect and engage. Through our promotional marketing tours, we help national organisations and global brands get 'out there' and make an impact.

We solve your problems

We've always believed that the best people love a challenge. That's why our people stay, because with us they get the opportunity to work on challenging projects of real scale and importance. For you, that means working with an enthusiastic, expert team who love making the impossible happen.

We deliver results

We know promotional vehicle marketing. We've been doing this since 2004 so we know what works across a wide range of sectors. If it's a promotional health or educational engagement tour, a product launch, a sports event or a TV show, we know how to deliver.

Not only do we think outside the box, we think inside the bus!

- » Free Route planning service
- » Expert advice and assistance from a dedicated account manager
- » We Care

We think outside the bus!

The process

So how does this work?

We promise to make this really, really simple.

Get in touch

1

By contact form, quote form or telephone, tell us what you need. Don't know what you want and need? Call us for a chat.

Explore options

2

What vehicle? How long? What's happening on the outside and inside? In just a few minutes, we'll build a picture of what you need.

The estimate

3

We give you a price for the work discussed. You'll either sign it off or call us for a chat about doing a little more or less.

Sign off

4

You approve the costs and any modifications including the branding, pay any deposits and, if it is a full bus tour, approve the route plan.

Branding & conversion

5

We send a template of your chosen bus to pass to your marketing team so the design is always on brand.

Delivery

6

We prepare the vehicle, appoint a driver and dispatch the vehicle to arrive at your first destination. Our driver will be with you soon.
